

National Young Leaders Day (25/03/2025)

Students in The Leadership Team are invited to attend the Halogen Young Leaders Day Convention at The International Convention Centre (ICC). The program is designed to benefit students who show an interest in developing their leadership potential. This year, there will be speakers from all walks of life, including Anthony 'Harries' Carroll, Thomas Duncan-Watt, Emma McKeon and Catherine Laga'aia. Over 23,000 students along with their teachers/principals attend this event around Australia annually. Transport for the excursion will be by train and light rail, so a child Opal card will be required with required funds for return travel from Katoomba Train Station to Central Train Station and the light rail from Central Station to the ICC Sydney Convention Centre.

The cost of entry and participation in workshops has been funded by the school.

There will be Compass updates after the event to advise on an approximate return time.
